

Technology Professionals to Collaborate at Nintex InspireX 2016 in Vegas

Inaugural February 22-24 conference will bring together global business and IT leaders to share best practices in collaboration including how to leverage automation technology such as workflow and document generation

PR Newswire
BELLEVUE, Wash.

BELLEVUE, Wash., Jan. 7, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Nintex will host its inaugural customer and partner conference, Nintex InspireX 2016, in Las Vegas at the ARIA Resort from February 22 to 24. Registration for the event is at <https://events.eventcore.com/InspireX/>. Early bird pricing of $595 USD is available through January 15.

InspireX attendees will gain valuable best practices that work across and between Microsoft and Salesforce ecosystems, hear inspiring success stories from companies like Denver Health, DocuSign, and Hawke's Bay Regional Council (HBRC), and partake in invaluable networking opportunities with peers and business leaders.

With an exclusive pre-conference technical workshop, 40 breakout sessions, hands-on-labs and interactive demos, the event will be keynoted on February 24 by Mike Walsh, CEO of Tomorrow – a global consultancy on designing business for the 21st century. Walsh regularly advises leaders on how to thrive in this era of disruptive technological change and previously founded Jupiter Research in Australia, and has also held senior strategy roles at News Corporation in the Asia Pacific region.

Featured speaker Gartner Research Director Kyle Davis will also host a February 23 session on technology trends in the global marketplace, and how companies are maximizing their on-premise and hybrid technology investments with workflow, forms, and mobile app capabilities from Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) process automation providers.
