

Nintex Recognised as one of the UK's Best Workplaces™

Trust, engagement, and leadership propel Nintex, the workflow and content automation (WCA) technology leader, to distinguished list of companies identified as 'great places to work'

LONDON, May 4, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Nintex was named by Great Place to Work® as one of the UK's Best Workplaces™ in its annual Best Workplaces™ ranking. This latest designation adds to Nintex's award-winning track record; the company has been recognised for its culture as well as its industry-leading process automation and process intelligence technology.

Nintex earned this honour because it has demonstrated a highly trusted and engaged workplace culture. Nintex ranked in the UK's Best Workplaces' Small Category, designed for organisations with 20-49 employees. Nintex currently employs 49 people in London and more than 400 globally. The methodology behind the Great Places to Work rankings is one of the most rigorous in the industry and includes an employee survey and an audit into the organisation's management and HR practices.

"Nintex employees work very well together and are relentlessly focused on the success of our customers and partners," says Perry Gale, VP of Sales for EMEA at Nintex. "Our London office is comprised of exceptional individuals, representing 25 different nationalities and speaking nearly 30 languages. Together, we work hard to maintain a culture that attracts the best talent and makes Nintex an employer of choice in the UK as well as globally."

Nintex offers competitive salaries, flexible working environments, and generous employee benefits. For career opportunities, visit <https://careers.nintex.com/> to see current open positions at Nintex based in London, Melbourne, the United States (Bellevue, Wash. and Irvine, Calif.), Kuala Lumpur, and Tokyo.

Great Place to Work® CEO Tom O'Byrne adds, "We are delighted to see Nintex on our Best Workplaces list this year. It is a validation of the strength of their leadership and commitment to creating the kind of culture which attracts and retains the best talent and where people have pride in what they do and want to do their best. The hallmark of a great workplace like Nintex is that their policies and practices are designed around the employee; this employee focus helps attract and retain the talent essential for driving and sustaining competitive performance. It is no coincidence that high trust organisations like Nintex also tend to perform better than their peers."
