Nintex Announces 2017 Nintex Partner Award Winners

Sixth annual awards program celebrates channel partners around the world for successfully developing, designing and executing automated workflows and content-centric processes for Nintex customers

BELLEVUE, Wash., July 6, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Nintex, the recognized global leader in workflow and content automation (WCA), announced today the 2017 Nintex Partner Award winners across multiple performance-driven and solution-oriented categories.

"The 2017 Nintex Partner Award winners represent the very best of our global partner network," said Nintex CEO John Burton. "We are proud to have these channel leaders represent Nintex and drive the successful adoption of the Nintex Workflow platform, from on-prem to the cloud, across industries and geographies."

The 6th Annual Nintex Partner Awards recognize the valuable contributions channel partners have made in helping organizations of all sizes, in every industry across the globe, improve the automation of business processes with Nintex technology.

A special honor was bestowed to Nintex partner, Synergi in the United Kingdom as it was named as the 2017 Nintex Partner Solution of the Year. Synergi earned this designation for its work creating and implementing the most innovative Nintex workflow solution for a non-profit organization dedicated to cancer research. Synergi's solution utilized the Nintex Workflow platform across Office 365, Microsoft Dynamics and Nintex Workflow Cloud® to enable access to data and research, streamline the document generation of critical reports, and facilitate collaboration.
