

Nintex Seeks Speakers for its 2018 Customer & Partner Conference

Nintex xchange (formerly known as Nintex InspireX) is a three-day event February 26-28, 2018, in San Diego geared towards business and IT professionals who want learn how to easily improve how work gets done with intelligent process automation technologies

BELLEVUE, Wash., July 28, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Nintex, the recognized global leader in workflow and content automation (WCA), announced today that the company is seeking speakers for its 2018 Nintex xchange™ Conference, the premier workflow event for Nintex customers and partners (formerly known as Nintex InspireX) taking place February 26-28, 2018, in San Diego.

"We're looking forward to hosting business leaders and IT professionals from around the world for three days of intensive learning, networking, and collaboration," says Nintex Chief Customer Officer Josh Waldo. "Nintex xchange is the place to be to understand the latest in technology trends, see workflow best practices, network with peers, and participate in hands-on labs. Attendees will walk away with a clear understanding of how the Nintex Workflow platform can quickly automate their business processes in an easy, connected fashion across any system they use."

Nintex xchange, <https://www.nintex.com/company/events-webinars/events/xchange-conference>, will feature breakout sessions covering process automation and process intelligence; digital business transformation; migration to the cloud; responsive forms; workflow apps; tech trends like AI, bots and IoT; and customer and partner success stories.

Current customers and partners of Nintex are encouraged to submit session ideas that they would like to present to hundreds of business and IT attendees. Submissions may be made online, <https://nintex2018cfp.hubb.me/>, until September 1, 2017. Submissions will be reviewed by Nintex and speakers will be notified in October whether they have been chosen to present at Nintex xchange.
